

What is CCCIRA?

The Cape Cod Council of the International Reading Association is a professional non-profit organization whose membership is dedicated to promoting literacy and best teaching practices in reading.

CCCIRA is one of eleven Massachusetts councils and serves Cape Cod and the islands of Nantucket and Martha's Vineyard. Membership is open to all teachers, administrators and consultants, advocates, parents, and all others interested in promoting reading as a life-long learning practice.

Meetings, special events, newsletters, the website, and networking are some of the ways members can learn and share about literacy.

CCCIRA is affiliated with the Massachusetts Reading Association (MRA) and the International Reading Association (IRA).
