

Massachusetts Reading Association

An affiliate of the International Reading Association

Goal

The goal of the Association is to promote literacy for all learners through professional development, research, publications, and advocacy for the literacy community.