

South Shore Reading Council

Winter Event 2017

Kathleen Merten and Ann Williams currently teach 4th grade at the John F. Kennedy School in Franklin, MA. They bring their enthusiasm and experience from working in regular and inclusion settings in readers' workshop, promoting a passion for literacy learning at early elementary and intermediate levels.

WEDNESDAY,
DECEMBER 6

5:00 - 6:30

EVENT IS FREE
TO SSRC
MEMBERS!
$10 AT THE
DOOR

Event Location:
Richardson Olmstead School
101 Lothrop Street
North Easton, MA 02356
Professional Development
Room, Room 201

South Shore Reading Council
serves reading professionals of Massachusetts' south shore
~membership $15 annually~

Join your local reading professionals on December 6 in Easton for an evening of networking and professional development!

The Power of Book Celebrations

After completing an interactive read aloud, why not have a Book Celebration? Book Celebrations are a fun way to incorporate standards driven cross curricular activities into Reader's Workshop. Similar to publishing parties, Book Celebrations allow students the opportunity to engage in a literature experience that is meaningful, memorable and fun! Light refreshments provided. Reading resources raffle!

Follow this link to RSVP or email scoyle.ssrc@gmail.com